OFFICE DEPOT FOUNDATION DONATES 7,500 COOL NEW SACKPACKS
TO HELP MIAMI-DADE COUNTY CHILDREN SUCCEED IN SCHOOL

*National Backpack Program on Track to Help
More Than 2.5 Million Kids Since 2001*

Miami, Fla., August 8, 2011 – If you put together all 2.5 million kids that the Office Depot Foundation has reached through its National Backpack Program since 2001, they would fill up about 50,000 school buses! That’s a lot of kids – and a lot of success stories.

On Wednesday, August 10, the Foundation – the independent charitable giving arm of Office Depot® (NYSE:ODP) – will donate 7,500 cool new backpacks in five colorful designs to children served by area non-profit organizations and schools. The Foundation will present the backpacks, which contain essential school supplies, during a special “Back-to-School Celebration” beginning at 3:00 p.m. at the Office Depot store located at 8605 Bird Rd. in Miami.

Through the award-winning National Backpack Program, which is now in its 11th year, the Office Depot Foundation will help deserving children prepare for school by donating 350,000 backpacks across the United States and internationally. The newly designed backpacks, which were specially created for the Foundation, reflect and respond to changes in the ways that children are taking their materials to school.

“In keeping with our mission – Listen Learn Care – we’ve created these fun and exciting backpacks in response to what kids have told us they like,” says Foundation President Mary Wong. “We are thrilled to donate these very cool backpacks to more children in a single year than ever before.”

In the past five years, Office Depot and the Office Depot Foundation have provided more than 55,000 backpacks and backpacks for kids in Miami-Dade County.

“Every year, we have seen our donations bring hope to children whose families might not be able to afford to buy school supplies,” Wong continues. “Parents and teachers alike tell us that we truly are helping children to build self-confidence, boost self-esteem and achieve greater success in the classroom – all as a result of being properly prepared for school.”

Special guests scheduled to participate in the sackpack presentations include Miami-Dade County Mayor Carlos A. Gimenez; Louis Pino, commission aide, and Georgette Nahon, community liaison, representing Miami-Dade County Commissioner Joe Martinez; Ada Rojas and Alan Morley, representing City of Miami Mayor Tomas P. Regalado; Alyn Cruz-Hagen, representing United States Senator Marco Rubio; and Alexandra V. Dominguez, legislative aide, representing State Representative Jose Felix Diaz.

The non-profit organizations, schools and agencies scheduled to receive sackpacks during the August 10 donation event include:

- Miami Dade County Public Schools
- 100 Black Men of South Florida
- Amigos for Kids
- Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Miami
- Bridging The Gap Organization
- CCDH, Inc.
- CMB Visions Unlimited
- Communities in Schools of Miami
- Embrace Girl Power! After School Programs and Camps
- FIU Holiday Celebration for Children
- Kristi House
- New Hope Development Center
- Optimist Club of Kendall Hammocks
- The Nat Moore Foundation
- Upper Room Outreach Ministries of South Florida
- Voices for Children Guardian Ad Litem Program

To provide its sackpacks to children in 2011, the Foundation is hosting 25 “Back-to-School Celebrations” in cities across the U.S. and in Puerto Rico – five of which will include Tony Stewart, driver of the No. 14 Office Depot/Mobil 1 Chevrolet in the NASCAR® Sprint Cup Series™. Thousands of sackpacks also are being donated through Office Depot stores in hundreds of local communities and in collaboration with Office Depot’s Business Solutions Division in select cities.

Thousands more are being given to kids through the Office Depot Foundation’s partnerships with the Tony Stewart Foundation, the National Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) Association, Community Anti-Drug Coalitions of America (CADCA), Feed The Children, the Kids In Need Foundation, Zach Bonner’s Little Red Wagon Foundation, the National Foundation for Women Legislators and a new partner, Samaritan’s Feet International, which will distribute sackpacks both nationally and overseas. For the fourth consecutive year, donations will be made to children of the Navajo Nation in Arizona.

The Office Depot Foundation National Backpack Program is being inducted into the PR News 2011 Platinum PR Awards Hall of Fame in September.
